

The tactics, the presence, the energy, the mentality. I think he deserves this match. I'm very happy that he's climbing the rankings. Now I'm going to enjoy this match with lots of music and lots of partying with the whole team so we can return to Indian Wells with lots of energy.

Flavio, Alex Chavez from Record Mexico. Today you not only won an ATP 500, but you also made history for Italy. How does it feel to be crowned today as the first Italian to win here in Mexico, and how did you handle the key moments during the match? The truth is, I feel like nothing has changed. Surely there are others who have made history, like Del Piero, who was the first to win the tournament.
